

Palisades Park Professional Development
January 24, 2024
Staff In-service

We had another great learning experience with Dr. Kongsvik on January 24th! The faculty of Palisades Park School District acquired knowledge of metacognitive methods in vocabulary acquisition methodology. These strategies help students learn more efficiently and participate more deeply in their education. Teachers learned how to incorporate these strategies into their teaching to enhance students' vocabulary learning and improvement.

